Minister Maxwell's Story Impact of ISAAC training

The training ISAAC sent me to was like the Fourth of July—fireworks in my soul!

When I went to training I found out there was a movement going on, and I wasn't aboard. I needed to get aboard and be involved. God cares about humanity. Justice for all. It set me on fire.

I was raised in a home where we didn't vote. All our energies went to surviving. I never knew there were people out there fighting for things like health care for everybody, for old people who can't afford it, like my mom.

I didn't excel in school, so I was always told I wasn't going to amount to anything. But at training,

At training, I felt the leader in my spirit.

I felt the leader in my spirit. I gained the knowledge that you have the power to make anything happen, if you just work together.

I came home and helped organize the Eastside Public Meeting. It

Rick Hume's Story ISAAC's impact on transit

I've been riding Care-A-Van since its conception, a good 20 years ago. Being visually impaired and not able to drive, I needed to come up with a ride to get to my business. I have a congenital disease that causes low vision in your youth and 20s then loss of vision in your 30s. You're left with only light perception, can't recognize a face. You have to adapt!

Care-A-Van is adaptive transportation. It's wonderful to have that independence. Door-to-door service means I've been able to get a ride to my work for over 20 years. I can go and visit my dad in Plainwell. I can even work out after work.

I always thought it was a pity that Care-A-Van wasn't more solidly funded like other cities. It's a really good move to fund transit with county-wide funding. It's an extremely impor-

Min. Maxwell from page 1 was like my own little baby. We put forth a lot of effort and we accomplished something. We brought the people and the officials together, and we got a response. It brought a lot of pride and hope.

I felt the leader in my spirit again when I was talking to the Mayor from the pulpit at the Eastside Public Meeting. Here I am, once called a nobody, talking to the Mayor! I heard my voice on the news! This is something that God is doing.

I'm excited about the direction God has put on my life. Whatever we set our minds to we can do—we just need to be about God's business."

The Eastside Public Meeting that Minister Maxwell helped lead was organized by ISAAC congregations, Rock of Revelation Apostolic and Open Door Ministries COGIC, guided by ISAAC organizer Jomil Wells. 35 volunteers knocked on 400 doors to do a Community Needs Assessment. The top 3 concerns they heard became the agenda for the meeting, with public officials' responses: 1) Drugs, Speeding and Loitering - Lt. Stacey Randolph & Chief Hadley agreed the police would do one-on-ones with 30 residents a month to build cooperative relationships.

2) Abandoned Housing - Kalamazoo Anti-blight Manager Tim Muelenberg agreed to work with ISAAC and the Disability Network together founded Friends of Transit for Kalamazoo County, which has been working for the creation of the county-wide transit system that Rick Hume and so many other people in our county need--to get to jobs, medical care, education, shopping, recreation and religious and civic events.

ISAAC, through Friends of Transit, has helped in the creation of the Kalamazoo County Transit Authority, the addition of the three new Portage bus routes, and the expansion of evening and Saturday hours.

The next challenge is to get the County-wide millage approved. Join us in working to pass the November 4 millage and create seamless transportation options throughout the County!

neighbors to prioritize buildings and report back in Sept.

3) Recreation - Mayor Bobby Hopewell, who grew up on the Eastside, agreed to be a champion for an Eastside recreation center with sustainable funding.

Channel 3, Channel 17 and the Gazette were all there.

What made such a success possible? The Gamaliel training that ISAAC offers, helping ordinary citizens become leaders.

ISAAC needs the support of people like you in order to continue in our blessed endeavors. Without your contribution, we are unable to bring about changes we believe in.

Did you know a contribution of as little as $5 a month can make a huge difference? That's $60 a year, and when that tributary flows in with the donations of others, we have a river of power able to surmount any financial obstacle.

Please consider giving. Because yes, we can create a just community.

Which scriptures inspire you?

...and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? -Micah 6:8

Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves; ensure justice for those who are perishing. Yes, speak up for the poor and helpless, and see that they get justice.

-Proverbs 31: 8-9

Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke? - Isaiah 58:6

So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

- Matthew 7:12

None of you [truly] believes until he wishes for his brother what he wishes for himself. - # 13 of Imam
