

2016 - ISAAC Testimonials

ISAAC serves as a focal point for citizen action, a hotbed of creative thinking and a persistent and competent campaigner for real world undertakings intended to improve and support our community.

-City Commissioner David Anderson

We share the same vision of "A Vibrant Community Living by Faith." Together, we are stronger when dealing with issues that need community involvement and support. ISAAC has gained the reputation of being able to actually effect change.

-Dr. Addis Moore, President of Northside Ministerial Alliance

It is important for me to be an ISAAC donor due to the significant work that has been done on behalf of early childhood education.

-Jacque Eatmon, Director/Educator

ISAAC has continually and steadfastly advocated for a better way to address youth violence in the City of Kalamazoo, and were instrumental in garnering our commitment to adopting a "Group Violence Intervention" Model.

-Chief Jeff Hadley, KDPS

ISAAC is one of the few social justice organizations that actually upholds and practices principles of social justice. ISAAC is no joke, when they say they are working on social justice issues, they are really working on social justice issues.

-Dr. Charles Warfield, NAACP President

ISAAC embodies democratic decision-making combined with grassroots, strategic mobilization. ISAAC is working to make Kalamazoo better for all people!

-State Representative Jon Hoadley
